

Paris, the Capital of France was sacked by the Normans, and many valuables taken away. France was obliged to surrender 7,000 pounds of silver before the Normans would quit Paris.

845

Lewis, son of Lothar, king of Italy Dares plunder Paris and is brought off.

845

Danegeld

money first paid by monks of Saint Denis in France

845

---

Vortrag mit Hamburg & Paris

845
C 810 - C 875

1912 Dates J-BK

The most celebrated of Alcuin's successors of the school at the Palace of Charlemagne, was JOHANNES SCOTUS ERIGENA or John the Scot (C 810 - C 875)
He was called by Charles the Bald from England in 845. This illustrious scholar is to be regarded as the initiator of Neo-

PLATONISM and Christian mysticism into France and western theology.

845

1912 Dates J-BK

The Danish Norsemen went up the Seine R. And attacked Paris.
In 845

845

---

notmen take Rouen and rock
Paris.